Field-Focused ICE Response Guidelines for Jobsites

Field Team Awareness & Training

- Conduct toolbox talks on ICE visit protocols.
- Post laminated "ICE Response Quick Cards" in jobsite trailers and break areas.
- Train Project Managers, Superintendents, Foremen, and Site Safety officers on:
    - What ICE agents can and cannot do.
    - How to respond calmly and legally.
    - Who to call immediately.

Designated Field Response Roles

- The Superintendent is the Site ICE Coordinator.
- Arthur Miller is the Legal Contact Liaison.
- Ensure all field leaders have the Legal Contact Liaison's number saved and posted.

Immediate Actions During an ICE Visit/Raid

- Do not panic or obstruct.
- Ask for identification and a warrant.
    - If there's no warrant: ICE may only access public areas.
    - If there's an administrative warrant: do not allow access to non-public areas.
    - If there's a judicial warrant: allow access only as specified.
- Do not consent to interviews or searches.
    - Politely refer ICE to legal counsel.
- Notify HQ immediately.
    - Use the emergency chain of command.
    - Superintendent calls the Project Manager.

      Project Manager calls ⇒ Project Executive calls ⇒ Director of Operations calls ⇒ Legal
- Document everything (incident report):
    - Names of agents
    - Time of arrival
    - What was said?
    - What was taken? (Agents should provide a list of all items taken prior to leaving)

Jobsite-Specific Preparations

- Maintain a Field ICE Response Binder with:
    - Emergency contact list.
    - Legal counsel contact.
    - Summary of employee rights.
    - Blank incident log sheets.
- Ensure all Subcontractor's Project Managers & Foremen are aware of the ICE response policy.

Post ICE Visit/ Raid Protocol

- Complete an incident report immediately.
- Debrief with Legal and HR.
- Do not discuss the incident publicly or with the media during or after the event.
- Do not post or discuss the incident on social media during or after the event.
- Only share updates with the chain of command through official channels.

Post ICE Visit/ Raid Media Response Protocol

- If a media response is required, you shall refer them to Christine Corrigan, Director of Marketing.
- If you must comment, the only thing that should be said is:
    - "My name is _____, and I am the Hedrick Brothers Construction___(job title)___for this project. At approximately _____(am/pm), ICE agents arrived on site; We are cooperating as required by law. Our Legal Counsel and Executive Team have been informed."
